Leicester,
April 24/72.

Dear Mr. Child,

Have you a spare copy of the Tribune, which contains your Texas article, "Taking Naboth's vineyard", of which S. J. May makes mention in his "Recollections", p. 321? If you have one, I should be greatly obliged to you to send it to me, & let me know what I should pay you for it. Very small was the Tribune's behaviour as to the circulation of that article.

I am, Very truly Yrs, with sincere respects to Mrs. Child,

Sam'l May

Have you seen E. H. Sears's book, "The Fourth Gospel", &c. & what interest do you feel in such discussions — & how do you & Mrs. C. like that book?
